Compassion and Dignity

Support Your Community

DONATE

In these challenging and unpredictable times, HACES remains steadfast in our commitment to serving the immigrant community. We understand that the current political landscape brings unprecedented uncertainties and anxieties, especially for those navigating the complex immigration process. Our mission, above all, is to ensure that every individual seeking our assistance is met with unwavering support, comprehensive services, and the utmost respect for their human dignity.

HACES is committed to serving the immigrant community.

Our Services: A Comprehensive Support System

At our core, we offer a wide range of services designed to meet the diverse needs of the immigrant community. Our holistic approach ensures that every aspect of the immigration journey is addressed with care and expertise. Here are some of the key services we provide:

- Legal Assistance: Accredited experts help with visa applications, asylum claims, green card renewals, and citizenship applications, empowering clients with knowledge and resources.
- Application Support: Personalized help with completing forms, translating documents, and preparing for interviews.
- Community Resources: Access to healthcare, mental health services, public benefits, and other essential resources to support clients' overall well being.
- Know Your Rights Workshops: Educational sessions designed to empower immigrants by providing them with critical information about their legal rights and protections.
